• OVERVIEW •

Uluru Camel to Sunset Experience Tour

Travelling for one hour on the friendly camels in the spectacular desert landscape. Bringing you closer to nature, the skilled cameleers tell you stories of the territory. With stunning views of Uluru and Kata Tjuta, watch the colour change as the sun sets from atop a sand dune. Return to the farm at twilight to relax and enjoy Australian beer, wine, champagne and outback bush foods including the famous freshly baked beer bread damper.

Things to do and see

- Chris Hill Saddlery

There is a fully working saddlery here at the Farm, all saddles and harnesses used here are made right here from scratch. It takes about 30 hours to make one complete saddle. Saddles weigh 18kg and can hold 2 people. Repairs and maintains on saddles bags, harnesses and saddles all take place in the saddlery. Chris is the saddle maker and leather work expert, the equipment used in the saddlery is from Chris's own personal collection of rear antique saddlers tools, these tools are all still used by Chris today.

- Staging post

The "Staging Post" area is located next to the Saddlery - This exterior look of this extension portrays a building from the 'wild west 1880's' complete with rustic signage. The staging post houses a fully restored Cobb and Co stagecoach, 12 seater wagon and 3 seater buggy, this area also contains a history display made up of images and artifacts.

- Windmill

The Windmill was proudly donated to us by Curtin Springs Station. The Windmill was the original homestead windmill that supplied the Curtin Springs homestead for over 40 years before being replaced with a modern electric water pump. March 2013 a team of strong blokes from the farm salvaged the old windmill from Curtin Springs. On it's arrival at the farm the head of the windmill was fully rebuilt once the rebuild was complete the windmill was erected in one piece and now stands proudly in the center of the farm.
